 - "(3) When the accused is sentenced to death by any court and an appeal lies from such judgment as of right, the court shall inform him of the period within which, if he wishes to appeal, his appeal should be preferred."
- 10. Amendment of section 411A, Act V of 1898.—In sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 411A of the said Code, for the words 'in the Letters

Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment)

Patent of any High Court" the words "in the Letters Patent or law by which the High Court is constituted or continued" shall be substituted.

- 29. Amendment of section 426, Act V of 1898.—In sub-section (3) of section 426 of the said Code, the words "penal servitude" shall be omitted.
- 21. Substitution of new sections for sections 503 to 508A, Act V of 1898.—For sections 503 to 508A, inclusive, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—
 - "503. When attendance of witness may be dispensed with and commission issued.—(1) Whenever, in the course of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, it appears to a High Court, court of session, district magistrate or presidency magistrate that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, under the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such court or magistrate may dispense with such attendance and may issue a commission for the examination of the witness in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.
 - (2) Whenever, in the course of an inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code before any magistrate other than a district magistrate or presidency magistrate, it appears that a commission ought to be issued for the examination of a witness whose evidence is necessary for the ends of justice and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, under the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such magistrate shall apply to the district magistrate stating the reasons for the application; and the district magistrate may either issue a commission in the manner hereinafter provided or reject the application.
 - 504. Commission to whom to be issued.—(1) If the witness is within the territories to which this Code extends, the commission shall be directed to the district magistrate or chief presidency magistrate, as the case may be, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the witness is to be found.
 - (2) If the witness is in India, but in an area to which this Code does not extend, the commission shall be directed to such court or officer as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf.
 - (3) If the witness is in a country or place outside India and arrangements have been made by the Central Government with the Government of such country or place for taking the evidence of witnesses in relation to criminal matters, the commission shall be issued in such form, directed to such court or officer, and sent to such authority for transmission, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prescribe in this behalf.
 - 505. Execution of commissions.—(1) Upon receipt of the commission, the district magistrate, or such magistrate of the first class as he may appoint in this behalf, shall proceed to the place where the witness is, or shall summon the witness before him, and shall take down his evidence in the same manner, and may for this purpose exercise the same powers, as in trials of warrant cases under this Code.

- (2) Upon receipt of the commission, the chief presidency magistrate, or such presidency magistrate subordinate to him as he may appoint in this behalf, may compel the attendance of, and examine, the witness as if he were a witness in a case pending before himself.
- 506. Parties may examine witnesses.—(1) The parties to any proceeding under this Code in which a commission is issued may respectively forward any interrogatories in writing which the court or magistrate directing the commission may think relevant to the issue, and it shall be lawful for the magistrate, court or officer to whom the commission is directed or to whom the duty of executing it is delegated, to examine the witness upon such interrogatories.
- (2) Any such party may appear before such magistrate, court or officer by pleader, or if not in custody, in person, and may examine, cross-examine and re-examine (as the case may be) the said witness.
- 507. Return of commission.—(1) After any commission issued under section 503 has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder, to the court or magistrate issuing the commission; and the commission, the return thereto and the deposition shall be open at all reasonable times to inspection of the parties, and may, subject to all just exceptions, be read in evidence in the case by either party, and shall form part of the record.
- (2) Any deposition so taken, if it satisfies the conditions prescribed by section 33 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (I of 1872), may also be received in evidence at any subsequent stage of the case before another court.
- 508. Adjournment of proceeding.—In every case in which a commission is issued under section 503, the inquiry, trial or other proceeding may be adjourned for a specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission.
- 508A. Execution of foreign commissions.—(1) The provisions of section 505 and so much of section 506 and section 507 as relates to the execution of a commission and its return shall apply in respect of commissions issued by any of the courts, judges or magistrates hereinafter mentioned as they apply to commissions issued under section 503.
- (2) The courts, judges and magistrates referred to in sub-section (1) are—
 - "(a) any such court, judge of magistrate exercising jurisdiction within an area in India to which this Code does not extend, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf; and
 - (b) any court, judge or magistrate exercising jurisdiction in any such country or place outside India as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, and having authority, under the law in force in that country or place, to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses in relation to criminal matters."
- 22. Amendment of section 554, Act V of 1898.—In sub-section (1) of section 554 of the said Code, for the words and letter 'for a Part A State', the words and letters 'for a Part A State or a Part B State' hall be substituted.

- 23. Amendment of section 558, Act V of 1898.—In section 558 of the said Code, after the words and letter "Part A State" the words and letter "or a Part B State" shall be substituted.
- 24. Amendment of Schedule II Act V of 1898.—In Schedule II to the said Code, under the heading "Offences against other laws," in the fifth column relating to the second item, after the words "Except in cases" the words "not relating to fire-arms" shall be inserted.
- 25 Repeals and savings.—(1) If immediately before the day on which this Act comes into force in a Part B State there is in force in that State any law which corresponds to the said Code, such corresponding law shall on that day stand repealed but not so as to restore any jurisdiction or form of procedure not then existing or followed or to render unlawful the continuance of any confinement which is then lawful.
- (2) All notifications published, proclamations issued, powers conferred, forms prescribed, local limits defined, sentences passed and orders, rules and appointments made, under any corresponding law hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been respectively published, issued, conferred, prescribed, defined, passed and made under the corresponding provision of the said Code.
- (3) The provisions of the said Code shall apply to all proceedings instituted after the coming into force of the said Code in any Part B State and, so far as may be, to all cases pending in any criminal court in that State when the said Code comes into force therein.
- (4) Where under any law in force in a Part B State immediately before the commencement of this Act, a sessions judge has been empowered to exercise all or any of the powers of a district magistrate, then, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), that law shall, in so far as it purports to confer such powers on any sessions judge, continue to have effect as if enacted in the said Code, and nothing in the said Code shall be deemed to transfer to any district magistrate in that State any of the powers so exercisable by a sessions judge.
